Visiting Leuven

- ▶ Town of students (100.000 inhabitants + 60.000 students)
- ▶ University of Leuven: exists almost 600 years. You can study everything in Leuven
- ▶ University integrated in the city

How do stressful and traumatizing experiences work? How can we understand differences in children's reactions?

How can we support children and youth in coping with stress and traumatic experiences?

How can we build family and school resources to support youth's resilience?

What role can school psychologists play in all this?
